Oversikt

Long isolated from the rest of the world, the Himalayan nation of Bhutan still maintains an aura of mystery. Bicycling in Bhutan rewards you with stunning views and pristine nature on good paved roads with little traffic. We start cycling from Thimpu after visiting Paro and head east to Punakha, stopping to visit dzongs (fortresses), monasteries, and temples, while absorbing the Buddhist culture.

Reiserute

Day 1

Arrive in Paro with an airport pick-up and visit the Paro Museum and one of the major Dzongs (fortresses).

Day 2

After a morning transfer to Thimphu, we ride in the afternoon to Dodina and visit two monasteries set back high amongst the mountains.

Day 3

Today will be a major hill challenge to the pass at Dochula, which is known for its spiritual energy and 108 Chortens that are atop the pass. After lunch, we descend down the pass through pristine forest.

Day 4

This is an enjoyable ride out and back, passing through lush forests famous for their rhododendron trees, and an area well known for its bird life and wild orchids.

Day 5

Explore Punakha valley, the Punakha Dzong, one of the most impressive Dzongs in Bhutan, and the temple of Chhimi Lhakhang.

Day 6

We leave Punakha early for a drive back to Paro and for a visit to the Tiger's Nest (Taksang Monastery), a highlight of the tour.

Day 7

We transfer you to the airport for onward travel.
