Philippines has more than 7,000 islands where you can find just about everything you could wish for. Considered by many to be one of the best and most accessible diving destinations in Asia, Philippines can offer a wide variety of marine environments to choose from. Steep walls and offshore pinnacles, spectrum of small critters reef paradise or take on fascinating night dives. On top of it wrecks of the Japanese Navy sunken during the WWII - Philippines has something for everyone.

It is not easy to create "Best of the Philippines" itinerary as this destination is one of those that will make you come back number of times. There is always something new to explore and you won't be disappointed. Filipinos pride themselves with hospitality and friendliness - did you know that the Philippines is actually the third largest English speaking country in the world?

Day 1: Departure from the UK²

Departure from the UK with Singapore Airlines to Singapore

Day 2: Arrival in Singapore and connecting flight to Cebu transfer to Malapascua Island

You will arrive Singapore in the Morning and then take a connecting flight to Cebu. Upon the arrival in Cebu you will be greeted by our representative from the Sea Explorers and transferred by a car and a boat to Malapascua Island (the transfer takes about 3 hours).

Upon arrival at the hotel we request to check your diving equipment/ arrange any rentals and necessary formalities. Accommodation Ocean Vida Resort or similar.

Day 3-6: Malapascua Island (B)

Diving with Sea Explorers. The package includes a total of 12 dives that can be taken whenever you want. The diving starts in the Morning at 7 am and finishes at 5pm.

Characteristic for this place are Thresher Sharks, very good macro and wreck diving. Accommodation Ocean Vida Resort or similar.

Malapascua Island is one of those very few places in the world where you can dive with one of the ocean's most graceful animals, Thresher sharks. But this is only one of many attractions that make Malapascua special. Malapascua Island has the most beautiful beaches in the Philippines and became famous over the years thanks to being one of the most exciting dive destinations with an incredible diversity of marine life. Malapascua Island with Gato Island forms the base of exciting diving with mantas, nudibranchs, Thresher shark and wreck diving. With its laid back atmosphere without any cars and roads, idyllic beach and long sunsets over the Cebu Island it is truly a paradise.

Day 7: Malapascua Moalboal (B)

Departure from Malapascua back to Cebu after the Breakfast and then further south. Our goal is to get to Moalboal with one of the best wall dive sites in the Philippines. Moalboal is just halfway down to the southern tip of Cebu and is also well known to the scuba divers because of breaking world records several times. Accommodation Sampaguita Resort (alternatively Kasai Village or Turtle Bay Resort)

Day 8-11: Moalboal (B)

Dive, eat, sleep and enjoy! Moalboal is still relatively little known to the diving world as it is off the beaten track for most of the typical tourists visiting the Philippines. The reef along the western coast of Copton Peninsula offers great variety of marine life and the legendary Pescador Island is just 3 km off the coast. Panagsama Beach is the centre of Moalboal, although there is only little sand left after a massive typhoon which hit the region with its full force in 1984. Most of the hotels now are build up at the waterfront and present you with a stunning views over the Negros Island with its volcanoes. Those who want sand between their toes will find White Beach which is only a small tri-cycle trip north of the peninsula.

Moalboal has some of the best scuba diving in Cebu and is suitable for all levels. As mentioned before the reef is in very good condition and you'll find everything from good macro and nudibranchs to whale sharks. In addition a very varied underwater landscape with valleys, caves, tunnels and massive walls. Accommodation Sampaguita Resort (alternatively Kasai Village or Turtle Bay Resort)

Day 12: Moalboal Negros Island (Dumaguete & Dauin) (B)

After the breakfast you will depart to the neighbouring island of Negros. You will be picked up at your hotel in Moalboal and continue by car or bus to the ferry port in the southern part of Cebu. A small ferry will take you across to Sibulan, past Dumaguete and to our selected scuba diving centre - Pura Vida Dauin. There is a chance for an Afternoon dive after arrival. Accommodation Pura Vida Dauin Resort.

Day 13-16: Diving Dauin (B)

Great diving at two of the Philippines (and Asia's) best dive sites (Apo Island Marine Reserve and Dauin Marine Sanctuary). Pura Vida Dive Resort is perfectly located within Apo Island, just 30 minutes by boat from the hotel. Accommodation Pura Vida Dauin Dive Resort

Negros Island is on the fast track to become one of the Philippines most popular destinations and is especially popular with those who want more authentic holidays. Negros doesn't offer beautiful beaches as for example Boracay and Palawan but a great scenery and underwater world which is without any doubt the best in Asia.

Day 17: Dauin & Negros Island (B)

Free day to enjoy yourself. The area offers a variety of wonderful experiences such as tropical rainforest, waterfalls and postcard like scenery. A city tour in Dumaguete can also be a great fun and a highlight of the trip. Accommodation Pura Vid Dauin Dive Resort

Day 18: Departure Dauin (B)

Transfer from Pura Vida Dauin Dive Resort Dumaguete and flight to either Cebu or Manila, departure with Singapore Airlines via Singapore back to the UK.

Day 19: Arrival in the UK²

Best for: Tresher Shark (Thresher sharks), macro diving, wall diving, caverns, wrecks

Water temperature: 27-30°C (February 24-26°C)

Visibility: Rarely below 15m usually up to 30m

Climate: The Philippines has traditionally two seasons; rainy season (July-December) and the dry season (January to June). This does not mean it rains non-stop during the rainy season but you must be prepared for rain.

Best time for Malapascua & Moalboal: High season (December to April) it means less rain but more people and higher prices. Warmest months March, April and May.

Apo Island is best between June and November with normally calm waters and minimal wind making for a great visibility.
