Experience the peacefulness of the forest, floating down the Frío River with the opportunity to observe plenty of wildlife along it. Many different animals such as monkeys, sloths, iguanas, turtles, caimans and numerous bird species can be spotted. Our boat doesn't use a motor, so, you can enjoy the sounds of nature as we paddle down the river offering you the best opportunity to take marvelous photos.

The naturalist guide will help you to find the secret living treasures of this world and describe them to you. At the end you will share a very unforgettable experience with a real Costa Rican Family while eating some homemade snacks at their farm and practice some Spanish with them. Spanish Lessons are free
